TOWN MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, SAGAR.

Notification dated 21st September 1927.

1. The right to collect the market fees at the Sri Krishnarajendra Market, Sagar, will be sold by public auction in accordance with the details noted down in the annexed schedule.

2. Persons intending to bid at the sale must appear in person or through their accredited agents.

3. Every such bidder should deposit beforehand a sum of Rs. 500 as earnest money.

4. The sale will be confirmed by the Town Municipal Council, Sagar, which reserve the authority of refusing or accepting the highest or any bid whatever.

5. The deposits made by bidders excepting the first three will be returned on the date of sale, the deposits of the others except that of the successful bidder will be returned to them after the confirmation of sale.

6. The sale will be confirmed by the Council as early as possible after the date of sale.

7. The successful bidder shall thence forward be called the contractor.

8. The contractor shall within seven days from the intimation to him of the confirmation of sale execute an agreement to the Municipality binding himself and his heirs to observe the conditions detailed below.

9. The contract is not transferable without the permission of the President.

10. The contract amount will be paid by equal monthly instalments in advance on the 1st of every month. Interest at 9 per cent per annum will have to be paid on every overdue amount from the date of default to that of payment.

11. The amount due from the contractor or sureties if any will be recovered as arrears of land revenue subject to the provisions of Mysore Land Revenue Code and Rules thereunder.

12. Every contractor who owns no property in the Mysore State should furnish two tangible sureties who may own immovable properties in the Mysore State, for the due performance of the contract.

13. Contractor shall collect market fees at the rates specified in the market Bye-laws of the Sagar Municipality.

14. The contractor will be allowed the use of the market ticket office room without any payment of rent on condition of his keeping the same in a good condition failing which the cost of its repairs will be recovered from him or his sureties, in case there be, as arrears of land revenue.

15. The contractor shall put up on a board in some conspicuous part of the market a table of rates.

16. The contractor shall issue whenever he levies any fee a ticket in print signed by him showing the date on which the fee is levied, the purpose for which it is levied and the amount of such levy.

17. The contractor shall keep at the market true accounts of his collections which should be open to inspection and scrutiny of the President or Vice-President.

18. The contractor shall not levy any octroi duty and this will be done by the Municipal authorities themselves.

19. The contractor when found to levy any fee which he is not authorised to do should refund the same to the party, the decision of the President or Vice-President on such a matter being final.

20. The contractor should always allow the Municipal authorities to inspect and supervise the proper performance of his duties.

21. The contractor if he engages others to assist him in collection work should have their names registered in the Municipal Office only if such names are acceptable to the President or Vice-President. Any such person not accepted by them will not be allowed to assist the contractor in his collection work.

22. When a breach of any of the conditions setforth above will entail the forfeiture of the deposit or the levy of any reasonable fine by the President not exceeding Rs. 50 per each breach which amount will be recovered from him or his sureties if any, as arrears of land revenue. In such case the president shall resale the right to collect fees for the remaining period. Any deficit on such a resale shall have to be made good by the defaulting contractor and it shall be recoverable from him or his sureties if any as arrears of land revenue.

23. The imposition of fine as noted above will be no bar to any other penalties of law.
